CONNECTIONS

Midland-Odesa Symphony & Chorale
2009 – 2010 Season

Greetings!

Welcome to this season of “Harmonic Connections!” We look forward to connecting you with some of the greatest music ever written in a way that will move and excite you. Texas Artist Brian Lewis will get us started with the evocative Barber Violin Concerto, followed by the all-time classic Fifth Symphony of Beethoven. Haydn’s charming 88th Symphony and the ever-popular Young Person’s Guide to the Orchestra highlight the second masterworks program. We’ll take a musical journey to Italy for Viva Italia! a program featuring the NYAC winner and works written by Italian composers or inspired by Italy. American composer Carter Pann’s thrilling overture, Slalom, begins our last program with Shostakovich’s most popular symphony, the epic Symphony #5 bringing our outstanding season to a close. Join us, also, for a wonderful and fun season of Pops at the CAF!

We look forward to sharing our passion for great music with you!

Best wishes,
Gary Lewis
