The Midland-Odesa Symphony and Chorale is gearing up for its third annual summer music camp for children entering third through seventh grades.

Classes are taught by Emily Baker, a former ECISD music teacher and the current Voices of the Permian Basin Youth Choir director. She will cover basic music reading and theory in a hands-on way with instruments, sight-sing and folk dance.

Camp takes place on weekdays July 6-16 from 9 a.m. to noon. Cost is $80 per student and meet at the MOSC Symphony Hall, 3100 LaForce Blvd., Midland. To enroll, you need to complete a camp packer. Email kidschoir@mosc.org.
