If you love the Scarecrow looking for a heart, the cowardly lion and good music then you are luck.

"Oz with Orchestra" is billed as a symphonic night at the movies with a full showing of the classic "The Wizard of Oz" along with the Midland Odessa Symphony & Choral performing during the showing.

The MOSC is inviting West Texans to a Symphonic Night at the Movies "Oz with Orchestra" at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 7 at the Wagner Noël Performing Arts Center.

Presented by Lissa Noël Wagner with Frances Brown and the MOSC, audiences can view a complete screening of the 1939 classic film "The Wizard of Oz" while the MOSC symphony orchestra performs the soundtrack.

Music Director and Conductor Gary Lewis will lead the symphony as they perform some of the world's most well-known music. New technology allows the original vocals and dialogue to remain intact while the score is performed live by the full orchestra, providing a brand-new way to immerse yourself in the magic of Oz.

Hearing Judy Garland's original recordings, echoed by live orchestration will transport adults and children alike to the wonderful world of Oz.

This performance is recommended for ages 4 and older. Concert tickets are from $30 to $50, students are $17. Discount tickets are available for groups of 10 or more. Tickets can be purchased by calling 800-514-3849, online at mosc.org, or by visiting the Wagner Noël Box Office, open from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
